Dear CWA Retiree:

You are Invited to a:

HEALTH CARE CONFERENCE CALL FOR SENIORS WITH VICE PRESIDENT BIDEN

Date: Thursday, September 23, 2010

Time: 11:30 AM Eastern, 12:30 PM Central, 1:30 PM Mountain, 2:30 PM Pacific

Dial in information: 888-455-9735

You are invited to join Vice President Biden and Health and Human Services Secretary Kathleen Sebelius for a conference call and other senior administration officials to discuss the how the Affordable Care Act helps seniors on Medicare by lowering the cost of prescription drugs and free preventative benefits in Medicare as of January 1st 2011. We will also discuss the new Patient's Bill of Rights provisions which put an end to some of the worst insurance abuses and puts consumers, not insurance companies, in control of their health care. These provisions will kick in on September 23rd, six months after President Obama signed the Affordable Care Act into law.

Please forward this invitation to your neighbors, leaders, members and partners.

We encourage you to host a groups of seniors at your house, your senior center or other community setting to call- in to this important call.

Note: this call is for background information only, and not intended for press.

You do not need to RSVP for this call.

In Unity-Strength & Solidarity:

Steve Tisza
