Dear CWA Local 4250 Retiree:

I want to share this statement from the White House about the Social Security Administration not providing a cost of living increase this year. You will see that President Obama is renewing his call for a $250 Economic Recovery Payment.

If you agree with the payment program, let your member of Congress know ASAP!

Statement by Press Secretary Robert Gibbs on Social Security Economic Recovery Payment

Many seniors are struggling in the face of the economic downturn, having seen their savings fall. Today's news that the Social Security Administration will for a second year not provide a cost of living adjustment for social security benefits highlights these struggles. The President will renew his call for a $250 Economic Recovery Payment to our seniors this year, as well as to veterans and people with disabilities. Last year, under the Recovery Act, 56 million people benefited from the first Economic Recovery Payment-including about 50 million Social Security beneficiaries. We're grateful that Speaker Pelosi has indicated she will bring the new Economic Recovery Payment to a vote and we urge members of Congress on both sides of the aisle to support our seniors, veterans and others with disabilities who depend on these benefits.
