AT&T Advertising Solutions Bargaining Report #31

February 18, 2010

The elected Bargaining Committee members have completed an initial draft proposal. Additional work still must be done to finalize the proposal before it can be presented to the Company. The elected committee members will continue to work this week to finalize the proposal insuring that all Union demands that are issues are included in the proposal. All of the Locals should continue to mobilize members to support the Bargaining Committee and the new proposals that will move us closer to a Tentative Agreement.

February 16, 2010

This is to advise that the elected members of the CWA Bargaining Committee were requested by CWA District 6 to develop a bargaining proposal to present to the Company that they will recommend for ratification by the membership. This proposal developed by the elected committee members will be presented and explained by the elected committee. No agreements will be reached without the input, consultation, and agreement of the elected bargaining committee. The committee has been asked to develop the proposal and present it to the Bargaining Chair no later than Wednesday February 17, 2010. It will then be presented to the Company as quickly as possible.

The Locals should mobilize members to support the Bargaining Committee and the NEW proposal that will move us closer to a tentative agreement.
