Re: ATST Intellectual Property Program

Recently ATST implemented the Intellectual Property Program with a kickoff that included a raffle for ideas with a prize of a Kindle to each weekly winner.

CWA is opposed to the Program as a whole, and we have filed a National Labor Relations Board charge on this matter. We are looking for anyone who has received emails announcing the winners of Kindles, or anyone who has had a conversation with a boss regarding this program.

If you fit either category, please contact me ASAP!

Thank you for your attention to this matter and for any help you can provide.
