A National Summit on Diversity in Our Union Movement

A Voice for Every Worker

CONVENED BY THE AFL-CIO AND LABOR COALITION FOR COMMUNITY ACTION

SATURDAY, JULY 23, 2005

8:30 a.m.–3:30 p.m.

Sheraton Chicago Hotel and Towers

301 E. North Water St., Chicago, IL 60611

JOIN THE AFL-CIO CONSTITUENCY GROUPS, other union leaders and activists and AFL-CIO convention delegates to discuss diversity, inclusion and representation in the union movement. Participants will explore barriers to full participation and how to implement diversity proposals to be considered during the AFL-CIO Convention.

AGENDA

- Opening Plenary: Building the Union Movement Through Diversity
- Diversity in Organizing and Political Action
- Building Leadership That Reflects Our Diversity
- Advancing an Agenda for Full Inclusion

REGISTER NOW: Register online at www.aflcio.org/conference. All who attend the National Summit on Diversity in Our Union Movement are encouraged to register for and attend the entire Building Power for Working Families conference July 23 and 24 at the Sheraton. This summit is convened by AFL-CIO and the Labor Coalition for Community Action, a coalition of the AFL-CIO constituency groups: APALA, APRI, CBTU, CLUW, LCLAA and PAW.
